

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

CORRECTED FISCAL NOTE

HB 221 – SB 172

March 26, 2009

SUMMARY OF BILL: Creates a new Class A misdemeanor offense for a person to knowingly publish in any form information or records relating to handgun carry permits, renewal applications or any material required for a permit. Violation is punishable by fine only.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

On January 27, 2009, we issued a fiscal note for this bill indicting a not significant increase in local revenue, a not significant increase in local expenditures, a not significant increase in state revenue, and a not significant increase in state expenditures. After further review and additional information provided by the Department of Human Services, the fiscal impact of this bill is estimated as follows:

(CORRECTED)

Increase State Revenue – Not Significant

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Increase Local Revenue – Not Significant

Increase Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Other Fiscal Impact – A potential loss of $45,655,000 in federal funding derived from the Title IV-D Child Support Program and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Block Grants.

Assumptions:

- There will not be a sufficient number of additional prosecutions for state or local governments to experience any significant increase in revenue or expenditures.
- According to the Department of Human Services (DHS), this bill does not include an exemption to allow for the release of such information to the Department for purposes concerning child support enforcement.

- DHS indicates that federal law, 42 U.S.C. § 666(a), requires the state to have procedures in place to withhold or suspend, or to restrict the use of driver's licenses, professional and occupational licenses, and recreational and sporting licenses of individuals owing overdue child support payments. According to DHS, the Attorney General (AG) has specifically found this requirement to also extend to handgun carry permits (AG Opinion 02-003).
- According to DHS, this bill could jeopardize approximately $45,655,000 in federal funding received pursuant to the Title IV-D Child Support Program and Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Block Grants.
